Preface

Purpose of this book provide the reader a resource containing all verses from the Qur'an which focus on the positive and negative moral attributes of mankind. Thus enabling the reader to actively practice and/or engage in positive attributes and actively remove and/or avoid the negative attributes. The optimal result is being a progressive and morally conscious human being.

If all of humanity collectively followed the positive attributes contained within this book alone, reasonably, our collective environment would be positively affected and progressive. If humanity fails to adhere to any moral principles or displays a preferred tendency toward the negative attributes listed, we should expect our collective environment to be negative and regressive.

As human beings we all observe the world around us. Some of us critically observe and others blankly observe. If you, the reader consider yourself "observant" you will recognize these attributes within yourself and within the environments you frequent in daily life.

A simple universal example of attributes that few human beings would dispute is recognizing lying as a negative attribute and telling the truth as a positive attribute.

No one can deny if we want to be good people, we must know what attributes a good person actually exhibits. Once we know the attributes, we can implement them in our lives. With this is mind, if we would like to avoid exhibiting attributes of bad people, we must know what attributes a bad person actually exhibits.

Logically, if a person actively exhibits good attributes, but has no knowledge of bad attributes, they would be at risk of engaging with or acquiring the bad attributes and thus lowering the overall good potential they exhibit.

However, if that same person had knowledge of bad attributes they could easily recognize and guard against those circumstances. We can agree having knowledge of both the good and the bad is most beneficial to remain on the side of good. This is the best position a person can be in.

Whereas, a person who knows neither the good nor the bad is most lacking in knowledge and has no basis for any interpretation of defining to them– self what good or bad is at all. This is the worst position a person can be in.

The purpose of this book is to give both sets of attributes to the reader. The final result is being a morally progressive conscious human being. Each human being who aims to progressively reform his morality becomes an emissary of a morally united collective society.

The main page content has been formatted to allow reading the standard left-to-right method or alternatively scanning up-and-down of the attributes columns alone.

Chapter#: Verse# | Full Verse | Positive Attributes | Negative Attributes

This format allows to the reader to quickly recognize all attributes in 'point form' within and make an effort towards gathering the righteous attributes and make an effort of distancing away from the attributes of failure. If attributes within a verse are revealed in a 'staggered' formation as seen in (39:57) below, a (;) semicolon is used for this distinction.

39:55	And follow the Best that which was revealed to you from your Lord, before the Chastisement comes on you– of a sudden, while ye perceive not!–	follow the Best that which was revealed to you from your Lord;
39:56	Lest the soul should (then) say: 'Ah! Woe is me!– In that I neglected (my Duty) towards Allah, and was but among those who mocked!'	neglected (Duty) towards Allah, and was but among those who mocked;
39:57	Or (lest) it should say: 'If only Allah had guided me, I should certainly have been among the righteous!'	Allah had guided; been among the righteous;
39:58	Or (lest) it should say when it (actually) sees the Chastisement: 'If only I had another chance, I should certainly be among those who do good!'	...those who do good;

*(The reply will be:) 'Nay, but there came to thee My 39:59 Signs, and thou didst reject them: thou wast
Haughty, and became one of those who reject Faith!*

On the Day of Judgment wilt thou see those who 39:60 told lies against Allah;- their faces will be turned black; is there not in Hell an abode for the Haughty?

But Allah will deliver the righteous for they have 39:61 earned salvation: no evil shall touch them, nor shall they grieve.

...Allah will deliver the righteous for they have earned salvation;

...but there came to thee My Signs, and
thou didst reject them:
thou wast Haughty, and became one of those who reject
Faith;

...those who told lies against Allah;- their faces will be turned black; is there not in Hell an abode for the Haughty;

Author Introduction

Bismillah Ar Rahman Ar Rahim –

In the Name of Allah, The Most Gracious, The Merciful

My intention in writing this book is to pass on the gift of knowledge I received. This gift was not from my own intellect or studious behaviour of any sort. In short, the gift is Chapter 2 of the Qur'an. The Author of the content is Allah in fact, who is the One, the Unseen, the Creator of the Heavens and the Earth.

We first need to recognize the instructions given by our Creator are words of direction and instruction for our clear guidance and the perfection of society. Following this recognition comes logical reasoning, the actual human challenge is next to accept and follow them, not to refuse or reject them.

Briefly, how my journey to Islam began:

10 years ago, I was tired of the same routine. I became observant that my lifestyle and the lifestyle of my friends was just a loop, a weekly loop filled with the same weekday things, followed up by the same weekend lifestyle. I was not satisfied with this lifestyle or the behaviour that went along with it.

Certain 'men of faith' I deemed knowledgeable could not answer my simple questions, or when they attempted to answer them, the answer did not seem clear at all, almost as if they were 'running around the question' itself. I started feeling like everyone was behaving like blind people, like they didn't know why they were doing the things they were actually doing, and whatever that was, I wanted to get away from it. So I made some free time for myself, I needed some time to just think...

This was the first time I opened the Qur'an with an open mind, in a search for a clear message. What I found in Chapter 2 was shocking, the first few verses had attributes of the Believers that I liked and could resonate with. The real mind blowing moment happened just after the first few verses, when attributes of the Non-Believers began to be mentioned... these were exact descriptions of my friends, myself and actually answered my question of 'why do people act this way?'.

So fast forward to today, I read the Qur'an daily and each day I find new lessons and things to practice for myself. I feel truly blessed by this guidance, the guidance found in the book and it is reflected into my heart directly. I will admit the life I used to live most people would think is normal, I was a good student, a decent person, had a fairly good job, played sports and was polite and respectful to my Grandparents. At the same time I was involved in immoral activities considered normal in today's society, which I thank Allah I have been guided to recognize and avoid.

This is the gift to the reader, a sort of 'cheat sheet' of the good and bad qualities people have. You can scan through the columns and see which ones you recognize. When you start to see the truth behind it, you will start to love the book itself and see that this is the only book which itself is a miracle. Allah says in Chapter 2, verse 2:

"This is the book, in it is guidance sure, without doubt, to those who fear Allah". (2:2)

When, after you read this book you would like a free Qur'an, you can view the website link at the back of the book or simply walk into any local Mosque in your community, they will be happy to give you one. My advice to Muslims and those of any belief system is to go to the Mosque in your community. It is a literal place of peace, a getaway from the fast paced lifestyles we all live. Every man and women needs time to reflect, to disconnect and to recharge...

All these are found and accomplished in a Mosque. You can make is a personal experiment if you would like, measure how you feel right now and measure again once you return from the Mosque, or measure once you leave the doors of the Mosque. There is no doubt you will feel many times better after entering and exiting the Mosque, do not delay, motivate and challenge yourself, you will enjoy the result!

Please forgive me for any errors you may find in the publication, I look forward to revising and expanding this first edition soon. I also welcome current readers and future writers on a quest for knowledge and to join me in the race for good deeds.

Feel free to contact me anytime; we are all one Ummah (Community).

Foreward To This Edition

Observation: Without a human learning what moral values are, they will have no opportunity to practice those teachings? If they never learn the definition of good or bad moral behaviour, they will simply emulate each other's behaviour, classify it as normal and consider what they do as right. This generated mindset normalizes the participant's mentality and thus all participants accept this behaviour as a form of tolerant morality.

Problem: Humanity in general has a very limited, misguided or null definition of what morals are.

Definition of morals: "A person's standard of behaviour or beliefs concerning what is and is not acceptable for them to do"

Definition of morality: a particular system of values and principles of conduct^{1}

Definition of moral:

Adjective

Concerned with the principles of right and wrong behaviour.

Concerned with or derived from the code of behaviour that is considered right or acceptable in a particular society.

[attributive] Examining the nature of ethics and the foundations of good and bad character and conduct.

Holding or manifesting high principles for proper conduct.

Noun

A lesson that can be derived from a story or experience.

(Morals) Standards of behaviour; principles of right and wrong.^{2}

Definition of moral:

Adjective

Concerned with right & wrong conduct or duty to one's neighbour, capable of the notion of duty, practising virtue, conforming to or required or justified by conscience if not law, virtually or practically or in effect though not formally so-&-so, (moral philosophy or moral science, ethics; moral sense, faculty that distinguishes between right & wrong; moral courage, courage to do the right unmoved by odium(hate) or ridicule; moral law, standard of conduct respected by good men independently of positive law & religion; moral victory, defeat or failure that cheers, not crushes, the loser; moral certainty, probability that can hardly fail)

Noun

The guidance deducible from a fable, incident, etc. Plural: habits or conduct from moral point of view;

If humanity is not educated on morals, or, what right and wrong actually is – they will learn to have a tolerance to everything. However a tolerance to everything equates to an ignorance of good morals by definition. Humanity cannot live morally being neutral to everything. Full neutrality breeds moral decay.3

Definition of tolerance:

NOUN

1 The ability or willingness to tolerate the existence of opinions or behaviour that one dislikes or disagrees with.

Definition of ignorant:

1. Lacking knowledge or awareness in general; uneducated or unsophisticated.

1.1 [predicative] Lacking knowledge, information, or awareness about a particular thing.4

If we first educate ourselves by critically defining good and bad moral attributes, we can thus distinguish and identify what good and bad moral attributes are.

When we identify these attributes we can attain a moral compass, or, a deduced guidance towards improving our own humanity, and a model for a successful society.

After reading this book and identifying, defining and choosing to implement these attributes, we can ourselves analyze whether using this newly gathered moral compass has positive or negative impacts within our own environments and humanity in general.

Introductory Observations

Attaining Wisdom

A human being cannot move forward one step consequentially without knowledge... Hence, acquisition of knowledge to the maximum of one's ability and availability of opportunity stands forth as the fundamental human obligation, and this is what the Holy Qur'an has taught. (3: 190–191).

Acts Of Worship In The Qur'an

The Holy Qur'an makes the pursuit of physical science, --indeed, of all knowledge, and the active struggle for the spiritual and moral emancipation of humanity, and the establishment of social, economic and political justice all acts of worship...Therefore, identifying morals by reading this book is an act of worship.

Indeed, in the creation of the heavens and the earth and the alternation of the night and day are signs for those of understanding. (3: 190)

Who remember Allah while standing or sitting or (lying) on their sides and give thought to the creation of the heavens and the earth, [saying] "Our Lord, You did not create this aimlessly, exalted are You [above such a thing]; then protect us from the punishment of the Fire. (3: 191)

What Is Allah?

The Aramaic word for "God" in the language of Assyrian Christians is 'ܐܠܗܐ', or Alaha. Arabic speakers of all Abrahamic faiths, including Christians and Jews, use the word "Allah" to mean "God". The Christian Arabs of today have no other word for "God" than "Allah". Many persons have an immediate discrimination against a word formally used by renowned Messengers and Prophets when mentioning the name of the Creator, we must attempt to realize that "Allah" is actually something common within the community of the Believers, a common denominator of the past and today which has been made obscure and controversial for no other benefit than the division of the believers as a whole.

Unbiased persons of any faith will discover and recognize Allah as none other than his El, Eli, Alle, Elah, Alah, Allah. Call upon Him by any name, for His are the Most Beautiful names, as long as those names are not contaminated and as long as they do not conjure up in our minds the images of men or any creation of the Creator.

Logical Approach To Universal Discourse

"Say O People of the Book! Come to common terms as between us and you: That we shall worship none but the One True God: that we shall associate no equals with Him; that we shall take not, from among ourselves, lords and patrons other than God..." (3:64).

The formula of cooperation and fellowship for the promotion of good and the eradication of evil that is contained in this verse is: Commitment of absolute and undivided loyalty and devotion to God and the acceptance of the principle of total elimination of exploitation of man by man.

Everyone Is Religious To Something

What are you 'bound' to?

Any system of thought which may 'bind' anyone to any specific view of life, together with its emotional and ethical implications, is religion, because the very word 'religion' stands etymologically for the idea of being 'bound' or 'linked' to something.

Concept Of God: Monotheistic

The Islamic deity is not merely 'god' (ilah) but 'the God' (Allah). He is not merely an object of ritualistic worship, but the Possessor of all the dimensions of highest excellence, indeed, of absolute perfection. He is the Fountainhead of all values and ideals. He is the Omnipotent, the Omniscient, the Omnipresent, the Infinite, the Absolute, the One and the Indivisible God, Who neither incarnates nor has any partner or son or compeer.

He is Transcendent in His Being and Immanent in the cosmos through His love, knowledge and power. He is the Creator, the Sustainer, the Nourisher and the Evolver of everything that constitutes the cosmos, equally. He is the Righteous God Who bestows no special favour on any individual or community on the basis of such distinctions as those of race or colour, even in respect of mere formal labels of 'creed'.

Mission Of Islam

Establishment of all that is good for human beings and eradication of all that is evil, on the basis of godliness and unity of humankind.

The Mission Of The Holy Qur'an

The mission of the Holy Qur'an is to transform the life of this world with all its dimensions into a life of the 'worship of One God' by channelizing it into a 'system of obedience to One God' (Al-Islam). If One God is not worshipped a division of loyalty occurs breeding conflicts, and conflicts breed perversions, and perversions breed neurosis and split-personalities and un-balanced social life accordingly.

The Qur'an As The Basis For Moral Definitions

It is the Criterion which distinguishes clearly the right from the wrong, the good from the evil, the true from the false (2:185). It is the Guide for all humanity (2:185), which imparts detailed and comprehensive guidance in all matters wherein human reason can possibly fail in any measure and in any manner (6:114, 16:89). And, imparting new knowledge as it does (2:151). It emphasizes that all unbiased persons dedicated to knowledge are bound to uphold its truth at the time of its revelation (34:6). And to attest it, in later ages, as the horizons of human knowledge expand further and further (41:53).

Using Attributes To Better Ones Character

The Believers ideal is to reflect the Divine Attributes in the mirror of his personality, thereby fulfilling his destiny. His outlook is positive and optimistic, and is grounded in the concept of 'affirmation of personality'.

Why Practice Good Attributes?

The function of Islamic religious quest is spiritual and moral integration and development of the 'self' through self-purification, ultimately for reforming the society.

The Qur'anic system of guidance, or, Islam, is grounded in religious approach. It is basically religion par excellence, in the broader sense as well as in the narrower, or, strict, sense namely, as implying 'belief in a higher unseen controlling power, with the emotion and morality connected with it'.

Qur'anic Integration And Practice

Qur'anic guidance through practice covers benefits both the individual and humanity collectively. On the individual level, the spiritual, the moral, the intellectual, the aesthetical and the physical dimensions of human personality, and, on the collective level, the social, the economic, the political infact, all the dimensions of society creating thus a theo-centric individual, a theo-centric social order, a theo-centric culture and a theo-centric civilization.

When Religion Is Not The Principal Reference In All Practical Manners

Spiritual considerations recede into the background, or stay merely ritualistically, and religion becomes imbecile in respect of the practical affairs of human life. As a consequence, the representatives of religion either become the tools of the secular exploiting forces as has happened in a very large measure in human history, or have to engage themselves in a never-ending conflict with them.

Islamic Practice/Programme

Constant spiritual, moral and intellectual struggle (defined: Jihad) for the fulfillment of the above mission in terms of (i) conquest of the lower self by the higher self; (ii) conquest of evil by good in respect of social order; (iii) conquest of nature for the realization of 'Vicegerency of God'.

Belief in the 'Hereafter' or 'Afterlife' relates to the following basic Qur'anic concepts: (a) God is the moral Sovereign of the cosmos; (b) the Cosmos is a moral order; (c) man has to function on the earth as a moral being with a spiritual base; (d) he has to submit his credentials to the moral Sovereign, Who is actually the over-all Sovereign, in order to pass to higher level of existence; (e) hence, he has to face final accountability on the day of Judgment,

Which will occur when the 'heavens and the earth' have passed through the portals of 'death' into new dimension of existence. (14:48)

Goal Of Religion

The Goal of Religion is the fulfillment of human destiny which every individual is under obligation to realize in the measure of his personal capability only, towards his potential as 'vicegerent of God' which has been bestowed on humanity as a whole by its Creator (2:30)

Uniting As One Humanity = Unity In Society

The distinctions of the clergy and the laity, of the wealthy and the poor, of the superior caste and the inferior caste, and of the superior race and the inferior race (based on the inhuman dogmas of the 'chosen people' or of the supremacy of one colour of human skin over another), have plagued the life of human communities and that not only among those who have believed in the plurality of gods, like the Hindus, but also among those who been the so-called upholders of Monotheism , like the Jews and the Christians.

Negatively, through the abolition of the institution of priesthood, and positively through the creation of a classless, casteless and non-racial society, the Holy Qur'an has sounded the death kneel to all such evil distinctions. It has envisaged a society dedicated to godliness, and it has laid down a value-system wherein the only criteria of superiority are greater spiritual refinement, moral goodness and knowledge. This value-system reduces all the conflicting material distinctions into unity.

Lack Of Human Fellowship = Denial Of Religion

Chapter 107 Al Ma'un / Small Kindnesses emphasizes that lack of the spirit of human fellowship constitutes the very denial of religion and Divine Judgment.

Ideal Human Nature

To achieve an Ideal Human Nature constant exercise is required in respect to:

1. acquisition of control by the higher self over the lower (or, the animal) self which always forms the greatest obstacle in connection with the pursuit of all idealistic yearnings: spiritual, moral, intellectual, social and aesthetic, in order to build up human nature;
2. understanding human personality, human nature and human history, for the sake of pursuit of harmony in terms of human society;

3. effort for service to, and reform of, the society for the practical establishment of harmony in the social order;

4. subjugation of nature through the power of knowledge, in order to bring the natural environment into harmony with ideal human aspirations;

5. submission to God, Who is the Basis of all existence, the Source of all Excellence, and the Fountainhead of all Values, thereby to establish harmony with Him which harmony alone bestows fundamentally the capability to achieve the human destiny in the true sense.

Knowledge Of Morals Is A Prerequisite

Standpoint for Religious Quest (Quest for God)

The Qur'anic standpoint is ethico-religious, as opposed to magical, mystical, ritualistic and legalistic standpoints given by other systems.

Subjectively, it relates to spiritual and moral transformation of the individual (91:9);

Objectively, it is grounded in love for God manifesting itself in love for fellow beings. (2: 177)

Who Is A Successful Believer?

One who eradicated the positive and the negative evils that obstruct or keep in suspension the development of human personality in the spiritual dimension, and consequently in the moral dimension, –thereby ensuring healthy spiritual growth under the impact of Islam (full submission to Gods will and commands).

Rationally Oriented Faith Through Development

With reference to the human personality, the Holy Qur'an emphasizes its organic wholeness. The human being is a unitary being, with the soul, the mind and the body and their different dimensions of existence and behaviour, forming an integrated organic whole a unity. The Qur'anic view gives rise to the Qur'anic ideal of integration, wherein all the dimensions of human personality: the physical, the moral, the rational, the aesthetical and the spiritual, have to be developed comprehensively and harmoniously in order to achieve the Divine purpose with regard to human destiny.

Consistently Practising Good Morals

The ethico-religious good –as also other forms of good –consists in conformity to measure, or, maintaining the balance (55:7,8), deviation from the measure towards any extreme being evil, the commission of which is 'sin' in Islamic terminology.

Moral Boosting

Belief in Resurrection after death:

- (a) Lifts up the human vision beyond earthly existence and thus crushes the attitude of earth-rootedness which is the mother of all moral ills;
- (b) bestows on human values absoluteness, as opposed to expediency, and renders the moral struggle worth-while, meaningful, and genuinely consequential;
- (c) hence, provides the enthusiasm for moral struggle, in the face of all obstructions and frustrating situations;
- (d) Supplies the basis for the consummation of the reward of moral struggle;

Believer Attributes:

Non Believer Attributes:

O ye who believe! When ye deal with each other, in transactions involving future obligations in a fixed period of time, reduce them to writing. Let a scribe write down faithfully as between the parties: let not the scribe refuse to write: as Allah has taught him, so let him write. Let him who incurs the liability dictate, but let him fear Allah, his Lord and not diminish aught of what he owes. If the party liable is mentally deficient, or weak, or unable himself to dictate, let his guardian dictate faithfully. And get two witnesses, out of your own men. And if there are not two men, then a man and two women, such as ye choose, for witnesses, so that if one of them errs, the other can remind her. The witnesses should not refuse when they are called on (for evidence). Disdain not to reduce to writing (your contract) for a future period, whether it be small or big; it is juster in sight of Allah, more suitable as evidence, and more convenient to prevent doubts among yourselves, but if it be a transaction which ye carry out on the spot among yourselves, there is no blame on you if ye reduce it not to writing. But take witnesses whenever ye make a commercial contract, and let neither scribe nor witness suffer harm. If ye do (such harm), it would be wickedness in you. So fear Allah; for it is Allah that teaches you. And Allah is acquainted with all things.

If ye are on a journey, and cannot find a scribe, a pledge with possession (may serve the purpose), And if one of you deposits a thing on trust with another, let the trustee (faithfully) discharge his trust, and let him fear Allah his Lord. Conceal not evidence; for whoever conceals it, - his heart is tainted with sin. And Allah knoweth all that ye do.

The Messenger believeth in what hath been revealed to him from his Lord, as do the men of faith, each on (of them) believeth in Allah, His angels, His books, and His Messengers. "We make no distinction (they say) between one and another of his Messengers." And they say: "We hear, and we obey: (we seek) Thy forgiveness, our Lord, and to Thee is the end of all journeys."

The Researching Believer

The Believer, knowing as he/she does, through his own religion and through history, the in- authenticity of the records of all the pre-Qur'anic religions, he is duty-bound to refrain, on principle and not just for expediency, from insulting those personalities of other religions who are considered to be their founders, –which lays the foundation of international goodwill on the basis of Religion from his side. He can criticize, without ill-will and only for upholding and distinguishing the truth, the wrong teachings of different religious communities, but he is not permitted by Islam to indulge in insult and abuse of the supreme heads of other religions.

Authenticity Claims

Islam and Christianity and Judaism lay claim to Divine Revelation as the source of their guidance, while the theo-centric systems of Hinduism make no such claim. Then, I put forth the challenge to any truthful, non-biased researcher on a true religious Quest to investigate into the Divine Revelation which Islam projects and conclude that is unadulterated and authentic.

Likewise, I challenge that same truthful, non-biased approach in the case of Judaism and Christianity which will quickly prove that they are adulterated and unauthentic.

Authenticity Of The Recorded Document

To revert to the scriptures which claim to be revealed, the following verdict of an English scholar is final: "The truth of the message is intimately connected with the authenticity of the record, and a critical theory which assails the one assails the other".

Inshallah (God Willing) all readers will continue with all heart, mind and soul to seek knowledge and guidance towards the straight path of worshipping the One Creator of us all. We must learn from each other, enjoin good deeds and forbid evil deeds.
